

First Adolescent Substance Abuse Conference:
"Confronting Social Barriers in Adolescence"

Conference Speaker Information

Mary Jo Whitfield, MSW

Mary Jo Whitfield, MSW, is the Vice President of Behavioral Health for Jewish Family and Children's Service.

Ms. Whitfield has more than 30 years working in behavioral health. She has extensive experience working in Medicaid systems developing and implementing programs which provide services to children and families, persons with substance abuse disorders and persons with serious mental illness.